NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1	The offender has violated the mandatory supervision condition which states, 'The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On July 30, 2017, the offender was arrested by the Atlantic City Police Department for Simple Assault 2C:12-1A (1). Specifically, the offender attempted to cause bodily injury to S.D., by striking her with a closed fist to the face and dragging her person out of a vehicle. He was released the same evening and given a court date of August 8, 2017. This is a disorderly person's offense. It should be noted that the offender was arrested under the name Azali F. Cush, which is one of his alias's and is also the reason the undersigned officer was not alerted of the arrest.

2	The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states, 'The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.'
---	---

The offender has failed to submit his Monthly Supervision Reports in a timely manner. He has not submitted a report since January 2017, and additionally, he has failed to submit reports in the past on a monthly basis as required.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The offender's supervision commenced in 2012, and since then he has mainly been in compliance with his conditions of supervision. His urine screens have been negative for illicit substances, he has satisfied his special assessment fee and fine, and he has maintained employment throughout his term. Seemingly, the offender has not had any new criminal charges or negative police contact throughout his term. However, it is alarming that the offender is providing an alias to law enforcement when charged with a new offense, and it causes the undersigned officer to question his motives for continuing to align himself with a name that found him on federal supervision originally.

Based upon the offender's overall positive adjustment and nearly 5 years of supervision incident free, we are not recommending any Court action at this time. Rather, we will maintain regular contact with the offender and monitor the pending charge against him. We will update the Court accordingly as to the outcome of the pending matter.

Respectfully submitted,

By:  Bethany Grede
